

Herald Sun

Publication: Herald Sun
Date: 3 December 2007
Coverage: Victoria
Page: 13
Circulation: 618,000+

heraldsun.com.au Herald Sun, Monday, December 3, 2007 13

CHRISTMAS COUNTDOWN

Santa chutes through

SANTA'S ditched the sleigh — this year the big fella's dropping out of the sky wearing a parachute. And thrillseekers such as Val Woodman, 80, of Yarra Junction, are taking the plunge with him to raise money for a charity that sends wheelchairs to developing countries. Val said her jump, sponsored by Gifts That Thrill, was a rush. "I was worried about my teeth staying in before the jump," she said. "They were fine but I nearly lost my pants."

Herald Sun
CHRISTMAS LIGHTS COMPETITION
heraldsun.com.au